

Dear Parents,

We have arranged a trip to London on Friday 20th March for A Level Psychology students. We will be attending a conference headlined by Philip Zimbardo, a key psychologist from the A Level course. This trip is an excellent opportunity for students to gain a greater understanding of psychology - both in improving their knowledge for their exams, but also educating them beyond the curriculum.

The conference will be held at the Emmanuel Centre in Westminster. We will be getting a coach to and from the venue.

Itinerary:

07:00	Leave Jane Austen College
10:00	Arrive at Emmanuel Centre
10:30	Introduction
10:40	Dr Phil Banyard - Who Am I?
11:15	Cara Flanagan - Validity and Ecological Validity
11:45	Dr Gustav Kuhn - Experiencing the Impossible: Why Magic Works
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Afternoon with Mr and Mrs Zimbardo: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prof Christina Maslach - The Reluctant Heroine who Terminated the SPE and how this led to research on burnout • Dr Philip Zimbardo - My Journey from Creating Evil to Inspiring Heroism
15:30	Dr Zimbardo and his wife will answer questions
16:00	Close
19:00	Arrive at Jane Austen College (approx.)

The total cost for the trip is £43.00 per student (transport included). Students will need to bring either a packed lunch or money to buy their own lunch in London on the day. There is a snack bar at the Emmanuel Centre and many food shops nearby.

If your daughter or son would like to attend this trip, please complete the permission slip and return to Jane Austen College by Monday 8th December 2019. We do have a limited number of tickets so these will be on a first-come-first served basis. If your daughter/son would like to attend but for financial reasons they are worried they will miss out on a ticket, please get in touch.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

Rachel Barker
